Rosh Hashanan. - On Monday evening next, 18th instant, at sunset, the Hebrew festival of Rosh Hashanah, or beginning of the new year, 5,637, according to Hebrew chronology, will begin, and appropriate ceremonies will be held in the synagogue in this city. The holiday is senerally observed by an entire cessation of business pursuits and a strict a tendance upon the services of the synagogue. It the evening and on the following day the Shofer or comet will be sounded in the synagogue to proclaim a solemn assembly to the Lord and to call the people to a solemn r pent ance and examination of themselves in view of the Day of A onement that is to fo low. Two days are generally observed by the Orthodox Hebrews to commemorate this event. The first day originally instituted as a day of alarm ant remembrance, has been gradually i vested with the character of the beginning of the new year. The authority for commemorating this day and occasion is tound in Levit xxxiii, 24th, and other scattered passages of scripture. The Reform d congregations, of which that in this city is one, only observe one day for the fes-

LARCENY AND WHIPPING. -This morning. at an early hour, the police were notified that a cart had been emplyed to haul some shingles from an alley near Hill's bakery, and there being suspicious circumstances connected with the transaction they went to the store of Thomas Downey, on the corner of Fairfax and Cameron streets, whither the shingles had been hauled, and took them to the station house. They also arrested a white man named Thomas Butler, who had sold the shingles to Downey, and carried him before the Mayer. where the shingles were identified as the property of Mr. J. H. D. Smoot, from whose lumber yard they were stolen last night. After bearing the evidence the Mayor sentenced Butler to receive thirty lashes on his bare back, (wenty of which were at once administered, and he was ordered to report and receive the rest on the first of next month. Downey, who was arrested on the charge of receiving the shingles, knowing them to have been stolen, was fined and discharged.

ROBBERY OF A DWELLING. -Sometime during last night a third entered the dwelling of Mr. J. P. Ag ew, on the corner of Duke and Pitt streets, and passing up to the third story entered the room where Mr. A. Greenlease, a stole therefrom a valuable gold watch and about fifty dollars in mon y. No trace could be found of how the thiel got into or out of the house, and a basket of silverware which was lying on a table in a lower room was left untouched. Mr. Greenlease complained this merning of a queer feeling in his head, and thinks chloroform must have been administered to him by the thief or thiever. The robbery taken altogether was a most daringly conceived and executed one.

Foreign News. LONDON, Sept. 15 .- A dispatch from Berlin says the intelerant measures of the Spanish government against Protestants are stated to have given rise to a frequent exchange of notes between the British and German governments. It is understood they will address remonstrances to Spain on the subject, and call upon her to act in conformity with her engagements. London, Sept. 15 .- A dispatch from Constantinople to Reuter's Telegraph Company says the Porte has informed the Ambassadors of the Powers, in reply to their representations made on Saturday last, that it is impossible to grant an armistice, but the Porte is prepared to accept peace based upon the following

First. The reoccupation of the fortresses which were held by Turkey previous to 1857. Second. The destruction of the fortresses constructed by the Servians since 1857.

Third. The investiture of Prince Milan at Constantinople. Fourth. The reduction of the effective Servian army to 10,000 men and three batteries. Fifth. The construction of a railway across Boat Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 15. - The race of two miles for $500, single sculls, between Landers, of Salem, and Johnson, colored, of Boston, took place this morning on the Charles river course in the presence of fully ten thousand people. Johnson was the favorite, and just before turn ing the stake was 21 lengths ahead, but Landers passed him on the ture, and from that point led easily, winning to 14 minutes 2 seconds. Johnson stopped ten lengths from the finish and had to be helped ashore.
